EMBLEM

On a disc Gules, a bend Azure, debruised in chief by seven arched mullets Argent, over a voided globe gridlined Or, issuant from dexter base of the globe and arcing bend sinisterwise three contrails terminating in arrows Sable, all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached above the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "EXORNAMUS IMPERIUM AB AERIS" in Yellow letters. Attached below the disc, a Blue scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "128TH LOGISTICS READINESS SQ" in Yellow letters.

Symbolism

Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The bend is an element of the 128th Air Refueling Wing's emblem and pays homage to the unit's parent organization. The seven stars represent the seven flights that make up the Squadron. The globe and arrows are found in the Supply, Fuel and Transportation Badges and symbolize the unit's global mission and its ability to provide logistical support anywhere. The unit motto, "EXORNAMUS IMPERIUM AB AERIS," is Latin for "We Supply Air Power."
