OPERATIONS

The 132 Food Service Squadron, one of the support squadrons of the 132nd Air Base Group, provides each base with complete food servicing which includes the receipt, storage, issue and accounting for subsistence commodities. This squadron prepares and serves food, operates bakeries, meat cutting plants and flight kitchens. There is one Food Service normally assigned to each wing, however the number of personnel assigned vary with the number of personnel to be fed.
