EMBLEM

Per pale Gules and Azure surmounted in pale by a diminished pallet Argent, in dexter chief a globe of the second, gridlined Or, in sinister base two stylized aircraft in formation, in bend sinister pointed up of the last, issuing contrails from nombril and elevated nombril of the third, overall four mullets in bend sinister of the like, all within a diminished bordure Or. Attached below the shield, a White scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "514TH MAINTENANCE GROUP" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The globe alludes to the unit's presence in the world at large. The two flight symbols represent the 514th's dual airlift and refueling missions. The four stars denote the excellence in operations, maintenance, mission support and medical functions of the global air mobility missions.

Group will use the wing emblem with the group designation in the scroll.
