Azure, in sinister chief a sun of seven rays Or, in dexter base an olive branch crescent Vert, surmounted by three arrows two saltirewise over one palewise Gules, all within a diminished bordure Or. Attached below the shield, a White scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "621ST CONTINGENCY OPERATIONS SPT GRP" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The seven points of the sun denote the seven continents of the world and reflect the unit's worldwide functions. The sheaf of arrows over a wreath of olives symbolizes both peace and wartime missions. The unit uses the coat of arms of its parent organization, the 621st Contingency Response Wing.
