NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

Six members of the 907th CSS who pulled active duty tours at RAF Mildenhall in the United Kingdom last quarter were recognized for their outstanding support to the 513th Transportation Section by assisting in the pickup of air crews at the base. 1983

A thirty-two member contingent from the 907th Combat Support Squadron, the 907th TAG, and 907th Mobility Support Flight completed an annual active duty tour at Patrick AFB, Florida from 15 - 29 March. The reservists received training in the areas of personnel, administration, legal, billeting, vehicle operations, photo lab, education, and training. The Combat Arms Training team provided needed manpower to support the Patrick AFB Small Arms Range staff. A group of technicians from the 907th Base Training Section worked with the Reserve liaison to conduct staff assistance visits for units with mobilization augmentees assigned
