EMBLEM

On a light blue disc, edged with a narrow ultramarine blue border, a white representation of the prominent building at Randolph AFB known as the "Taj Mahal," detailed blue, surmounted by a blue silhouetted uniformed member of the Air Force. Attached above and below the disc, blank yellow scrolls, edged blue, showing a blue reverse. Scrolls are intended for the unit motto, above, and unit designation, below. The building represents Randolph AFB facilities, the protection of which is a major squadron mission, along with base-wide law enforcement and security. The silhouetted figure symbolizes the alertness and readiness of squadron personnel in performing their mission. (Approved, 29 Sep 1980)
