OPERATIONS

AMC inactivated the 25th Air Depot Wing and concurrently organized to take its place the 2949th Depot Training Wing which included the 2949th Supply Group, Depot. The 25th and 30th Ammunition Supply Squadrons became a part of the training wing with duty station at Tooele Ordnance Depot, Tooele, Utah, 12 Oct 1951. To insure no interruption in the training of military personnel, AMC directed the organization of the 2949th Depot Training Wing concurrent with the inactivation of the 25th. It was "identical in organizational pattern to the 25th Air Depot Wing" and permitted inactivation of the wing "without disturbing or upsetting members of this command."
