EMBLEM

Blue and yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater for Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The half globe on the left or west side of the emblem signifies that the mission of unit involves the western hemisphere. The lightning bolts, symbols of communications, indicate the communications and computer services furnished by the unit. The tower refers to Germany, the location of the unit. The NATO star represents the NATO support given by the unit. Red, yellow, and black refer to the host nation's (Germany's) national flag. Red and white are the colors of the United States Air Forces in Europe.
