Decorations

EMBLEM

On a representation of the Western Hemisphere, water areas Air Force blue, land areas light green, a wing gauntleted hand fesswise, Air Force golden yellow, grasping a telephone pole, radio tower, and radar tower, silver gray, the radar antenna atop the tower and four lightning flashes issuing saltirewise from the radio tower, Air Force golden yellow; outlined and details Air Force blue throughout. SIGNIFICANCE: The emblem is symbolic of the squadron and its mission. Against a globe to indicate this units worldwide mission the wing gauntleted hand to represent the speed and mobility of the workforce grasps a telephone pole, a radar antenna and a radio tower to symbolize the three primary fields of our work. The emblem bears the Air Force colors ultramarine blue and golden yellow. (Approved, 16 Nov 1961)³
