OPERATIONS

12 Oct 1951 AMC inactivated the 25th Air Depot Wing and concurrently organized to take its place, the 2949th Depot Training Wing which included the 2949th Supply Group, Depot. To insure no interruption in the training of military personnel (once a part of and assigned to the 25th ADW) AMC directed the organization of the 2949th Depot Training Wing concurrent with the inactivation of the 25th. It was "identical in organizational pattern to the 25th Air Depot Wing" and permitted inactivation of the wing "without disturbing or upsetting members of this command." Organizations of the old wing either received a new number or in some instances a new name.

AMC discontinued Headquarters, 2949th Depot Training Wing and these 2949th Squadrons assigned to the 2949th Depot Training Group: Aircraft Repair, Equipment Repair, Supply Services, Supply and Air Base. 27 NOV 1952
