EMBLEM

On a medium blue globe with Air Force yellow continents and black grid lines in northern projection four maroon missile shapes each on a meridian of longitude and between them in base two white missile shapes, and above the device a blank white scroll edged black, and below it the motto "Crusaders for Peace" in black letters on a similar scroll. SIGNIFICANCE: The emblem is symbolic of the squadron and its mission. The two white and four maroon missiles indicate the primary mission, the globe its worldwide extent, and together they represent the unit spearheading with zeal and enthusiasm the cause of global peace.
