OPERATIONS

At the direction of the Department of the Air Force, ATC inactivated Stead AFB, Nevada, and its 3635th Flying Training Wing (Advanced) on 15 June 1966. Stead's helicopter pilot training unit, the 3638th Flying Training Squadron (Helicopter) was discontinued on 1 April, and the 3637th Combat Crew Training Squadron (Survival and Special Training) ceased to exist on 1 June. Helicopter training moved to Sheppard AFB in Texas, and survival training transferred to Fairchild AFB in Washington. Activated on 1 March 1966 to assume survival training at Fairchild was the 3636th Combat Crew Training Group (Survival).
