Initially the 3650th AFIW, SAFE, had three Basic Military Training Groups: 3650th, 3660th and 3670th. In approximately 1952 they were consolidated into one: 3650th BMTG, with its headquarters in Building Donaldson. The Group consisted of four Troops. Please note that, depending on the era, as many as 24 Basic Military Training Squadrons were part of the 3650th AFIW. Numerous consolidations over time reduced that number to approximately twelve. The BMT Squadrons were located in C, D, E, G, and H Areas. In July, Col. Richard C. Boys replaced Lt. Col. James R. Patterson as Commander, 3650th BMTG. During Col. Boys' command, the Troop organization was eliminated, leaving the following traditional Air Force organizational structure in descending order: Wing, Group, Squadron.

During March 1952, the 3670th Basic Military Training Group, was inactivated and its training squadrons were assigned to the 3650th and 3660th BMTGs.
