

4129 COMBAT CREW TRAINING SQUADRON

MISSION

The 4129 CCTS is responsible for all policies, procedures and directives related to training of SAC assigned student officers and airmen in the flight operation of the B-52 and KC-135. The squadron is responsible for conducting the full B-52G Difference Academic Training for those aircrews designated for assignment to B-52G using organizations. All administrative functions pertinent to operation of the training such as incoming and out going processing, student administration, student finance, locator, records keeping and security are directly under the 4129 CCTS.

LINEAGE

4129 Combat Crew Training Squadron

STATIONS

Walker AFB, NM

ASSIGNMENTS

WEAPON SYSTEMS

COMMANDERS

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

MOTTO

OPERATIONS

Established within 6 BW on 1 /8/59 as part of expanded crew' training force. Used B-52E until inactivated on 15/9/63.

May 1, 1959--Two B-52 squadrons and the one KC-135 squadron of the 6th BW changed from a tactical to a training mission. To supervise the new training program, the 4129th Combat Crew Training Squadron was activated.

September 15, 1963--All of the 6th SAW's tactical squadrons were restored to a tactical mission and the 4129th's CCT was inactivated.

Lt Col W. E. Clark

USAF Unit Histories
Created: 26 Mar 2022
Updated:

Sources
Air Force Historical Research Agency. U.S. Air Force. Maxwell AFB, AL.