EMBLEM

Blue and yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The pole star emitting four lightning flashes represents the division and its four original subunits. The lightning flashes are also the traditional symbol for electronic communications. The globe suggests the worldwide scope of the division's mission. The aircraft with contrail and computer suggest the division's integral role in support of the Air Force mission.
