OPERATIONS

The Materiel Division began to move its headquarters from McCook to Wright Field in early 1927. Six months later, in June, the air intermediate depots were renamed air depots, a designation they were to carry until 1943, and the Air Corps established three insular, or departmental, depots. One depot was established in Hawaii, another in Panama, and the third in the Philippines. The Air Corps made a number of other important changes in the depot structure during the 1930s. The depot at Little Rock was discontinued during Fiscal Year 1930; the depot at Scott Field was discontinued in the late 1930s; and the depot at Rockwell Field was transferred from North Island, which was turned over to the Navy, to Sacramento, California, in 1938 and 1939. In addition, the Chief of the Materiel Division was moved to Washington, D.C., on October 2, 1939. The division's staff remained at Wright Field under an Assistant Chief.
