

400th AERO SQUADRON

The organizational structure of the technical training bases also changed in the late 1950s, when Air Training Command decided to replace its technical training wings with numbered air force-equivalent centers. Effective 1 January 1959, HQ ATC redesignated the 3750th Technical Training Wing as the Sheppard Technical Training Center (STTC).

01 Jul 93 When the Air Force decided to combine education and training under a single command, HQ USAF redesignated ATC as Air Education and Training Command (AETC). HQ AETC inactivated Sheppard Training Center, activating in its place the 82d Training Wing.
